"AIM is a ministry that raises a standard for Christ without apology"

"AIM encourages you to be content and to not need to be a part of the crowd"

"AIM is a ministry for Christians who value a conservative approach to scriptural interpretation while offering intense ministry opportunities for youth and young adults."

"AIM challenges young and old to not settle for mediocrity, but to strive for all that God wants for us"

STORY: "Our prayer was that the mission trip with AIM would change our daughter's life. What I DIDN'T expect was that upon her return it would change ALL of our lives!!! The atmosphere in our entire home has changed as a result of all of her younger siblings (and her parents) seeing this wonderful transformation God has made in her life as she came home "dying to self"!!! Because of her daily dying, it has challenged me as a mom of 8 (who HAS to die to self every day around here) to die to myself with a CHEERFUL HEART instead of just "because I have to."

"AIM conveys a high level of morality & purity"

"They push forward to preach the Gospel even with difficulties/challenges when others would have given up. The tenaciousness for the work of Christ needs to be supported and celebrated"

"AIM is raising up the next generation of Christian leaders and lay people."

"AIM meets the need for growing/hungry Christian youth and young adults who are not finding a ministry outlet elsewhere"

"You are expected to be excellent by your peers - not just people older than you."

"There is a desperate need to have students trained for the arts in disciplined excellence – this ministry does that!"

"I do not want to imagine our family life without AIM"

"As a parent, it is awesome how AIM comes alongside of us and supports the values we have, instead of competing with us for our children's attention"

"Lives are powerfully changed when the focus is no longer on self"

"AIM doesn't have limits for young people."

"Teaches the student to creatively change the world – and changes the student at the same time"

"AIM takes you out of your "normal" lifestyle and introduces you to an accelerated, all-encompassing, Christ-centered experience"

"AIM targeted areas in my daughter's character that needed correction through the Word of God. The results are remarkable."

AIM keeps students focused more on ministering for Christ rather than on themselves & their "Performance".

"The term "authentic community" has come to mean so much to our AIM Team and the families"

"AIM equipped young leaders to take the AIM model to 900 believers in the underground church in China – who are now going out and making disciples."

"Team members have become more intentional in their walks with the Lord and in becoming students of the Word like never before"

"AIM provides an "outside the family" source of accountability and challenge"

"AIM provides a family-friendly alternative for young people to interact socially, where the parents are always welcome, and where the priority of family is recognized and respected."

"AIM welcomes the entire family unit and provides a path for youth to excel in ALL areas of their lives"

"AIM's high Biblical standards provide a model for encouragement, friendship, discipleship and leadership."

"AIM helps young people to interact in a safe, structured and highly purposeful environment. AIM redefines youth ministry"

"We would love to see AIM go to the uttermost parts of the world"
